Schultz Pitches Good Ball
Against Cleveland and But For Knight Would Have Had a Shutout.

CLEVELAND, July 18.—New York defeated Cleveland 7 to 1 Thursday when Kahler and the rest of the Cleveland team went up in the air in the second inning, allowing the visitors to score six runs.

Schultz held Cleveland to six scattered hits and but for Knight's wild throw to third in the sixth with a runner on second, might have held Cleveland scoreless. Chapman singled and was rounding second on the hit and run when Knight's error allowed him to score.

Doubles by Knight and Midkiff, bases on balls to Gossett and Wolters and singles by Daniels and Cree scored six runs for New York in the second with the assistance of three Cleveland errors. Cullop then replaced Kahler for Cleveland and held New York to five hits and one run. New York scoring another in the third on Peckinpaugh's single. Hartzell's sacrifice and Jackson's fumble of Midkiff's single.

FIGHT TODAY FOR THE STATE TITLE

Four Indianapolis Men Are Left to Finish in the Semi-Finals at the State Contest at Muncie.

MUNCIE, Ind., July 18.—As the result of Thursday's play in the fight for the state golf title, Burt Wilbur of the Highland club, Robert Resener of the Riverside club, both of Indianapolis, Burr Swezey of Marion and David Baxter of the Highland club, Indianapolis, will fight it out in the semi-finals Friday. Wilbur is scheduled to meet Resener and Swezey will play Baxter.

The match between Resener and Wilbur Friday is expected to be a battle royal as both players are in good form and appear to be about evenly matched. Young Swezey appears to be stronger this year than last and he is playing a great game as the result, the odds are in his favor for the state championship.

Following are the results of Thursday's championship play:

Wilbur defeated Redwine, 2 up.

Resener defeated Keys, 5 up and 4 to play.

Swezey defeated Ayres, 9 up and 4 to play.

Baxter defeated Shideler, 5 up, 4 to play.

For the president's cup the play resulted:

Nusbaum defeated Jones, 6 up, 5 to play.

Stevenson defeated Baldwin, 2 up and 1 to play.

Shaffer defeated Trimble, 1 up.

Lesh defeated McNaughton, 2 up and 1 to play.

For the committee cup was as follows:

Eloy defeated O'Hara, 3 up and 1 to play.

R. P. Johnson defeated Coon, 5 up and 4 to play.

James defeated Prutzman, 2 up.

Fisher defeated Wood, 4 up, 2 to play.

For directors' cup:

Wilson defeated Bancker, 2 up.

Shaffer won from McElwaine by default.

Heath defeated McNeely, 1 up.

J. E. Johnson defeated Sampson, 3 up, 3 to play.

For secretary's cup:

Wilson defeated Sanford, 1 up.

Remington defeated McCarty by default.

SCOTT WINS ONE FOR WHITE SOX

Four Runs in the Seventh on Hits and Collins' Boot Give Them Game Over the League Leaders.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Chicago won a pitching duel between Scott and Bush five to two Thursday, making it two straight from the league leaders.

After Philadelphia had tied the score by bunting hits by McInnis, Oldring and Barry, the locals came back strong and clinched the game by bunting singles by Schalk and Scott and a triple by Lord, coupled with Eddie Collins' fumble. Fournier's grounder and Bodis's sacrifice, thereby scoring four runs.

Weaver was easily the star performer of the afternoon, his holding being greatly responsible in cutting off hits. McInnis' home run in the ninth inning was a feature. Pres. Comiskey said he expected his new outfielder, Chappelle, to report for duty Friday.

ERROR GIVES ONLY RUN TO SENATORS

Shotten, a Former Central Leaguer,
Lets High Fly Get Away and Browns Are Defeated.

ST. LOUIS, July 18.—Shotten's error on Morgan's high fly in the sixth inning with McBride, who had doubled on second base, decided a pitching duel between Joe Engel, a right-hander and Carl Wellman, a "south-paw", in the former's favor. Washington won one to nothing.

Engel held the locals to three hits, one in each of the first three innings, but one man reaching first base after the third inning. Lavan, who tripled in the third, was the only local player to reach third. Wellman also pitched a steady game, although hit twice as hard as the Washington twirler.

Greatest Come-back Battery in Baseball History--Brown and Kling.

THE FIRST TWO ARE MORDECAI BROWN AND, ON HIS RIGHT, HIS OLD BATTERY-MATE, JOHNNY KLING.

"And the cat came back." So did "Three-Fingered Brown", who was for several years the pitching mainstay of the Chicago National league club, under Frank Chance. So did Johnny Kling, who during Chance's regime was considered by many the greatest catcher in the game.

When Chance escaped from the employ of Murphy—never mind how—Kling was with the Boston Braves.

It wasn't very long before Owner Murphy asked for waivers on Brown and he was sent to Louisville, where, it was alleged, he could pitch better, despite an injured hand, than he could in the National league. Baseball politics landed Brown and Kling in Cincinnati to work for Joe Tinker, another member of the famous Chicago machine who escaped. And now when Cincinnati plays the raucous voice of the umpire is often heard exclaiming: "Th' bat'ry's today; For Cincinnati, Brown and Kling."

That the three-fingered wonder is far from being all in is apparent to those who peruse the box scores. He has had sweet revenge on Murphy by beating the Cubs in hollow style, once shutting them out, while the way Kling throws out runners, out-guesses batters and supports his pitchers doesn't indicate that he has one foot in the baseball grave by any means.

CUBS LOSE FIRST BUT TAKE SECOND

Fred Smith Starts a Batting
Rally That Puts His Brother,
Charles Smith, Out of the Game.

BOSTON, July 18.—Boston and Chicago split even in a double header Thursday, the locals winning the first game, 4 to 2, and the visitors taking the second, 8 to 1.

In the third inning of the first contest, Fred Smith started a batting rally which gave Boston all its four runs and which forced the retirement of his brother, Charles Smith, the Chicago pitcher. It was the first time that the brothers had opposed each other in a National league game.

The winning streak of Perdue, who had won six straight games, was broken by Chicago in the second game. The locals made but four hits off Humphries' delivery. Although three of these hits came in succession in the fourth inning, not one local player reached second base. The first man to single was thrown out trying to steal, another was hit by a batted ball and the third was forced out.

The fourth inning, not one local player reached second base. The first man to single was thrown out trying to steal, another was hit by a batted ball and the third was forced out.

Scratch hits by Wilson and Viox. Clarke's sacrifice and Byrne's long single won the game in the eighth. Robinson made three hits in a row before retiring, while catches by Carey and Kommers featured. Ragan did not issue a pass.

WILSON'S HOME RUN BEATS THE BRAVES

BOSTON, July 18.—Hess of Boston outpitched Camnitz of Pittsburgh but a home run by Wilson with a man on base in the second inning gave the visitors the victory 2 to 1. Miller had reached first on Maranville's fumble, when Wilson put the ball over the right field fence.

Kommers doubled in the ninth and scored Pittsburgh's last run on Butler's single. Boston's only score came in the sixth. Sweeney scored when Riden hit to Butler and was thrown out at first.

GIANTS DIVIDE UP WITH CARDINALS

Second Contest is Featured by a Fight Between Magee and Cathers—Wingo Pulls a Nice Bone.

NEW YORK, July 18.—New York and St. Louis split even in a double header here Thursday, the visitors winning the first game 4 to 2, and New York the second 3 to 2. St. Louis hit Fromme hard in the first game, while Harmon held the champions to seven hits. Three runs in the sixth inning on five singles with errors by Meyers and Snodgrass, gave the visitors enough to win. In the fifth inning Wingo tried to steal third while Evans occupied that base.

The second game was a tight pitchers' battle between Demaree and Marquard on one side and Sallee and the other. New York scored two runs in the third on a triple and two singles, and St. Louis tied the score in the seventh on a triple, a pass and a single. New York won the game in the ninth inning. Merkle was on second with two out as a result of a single and a steal when Sallee decided to let Meyers hit it. The Indian drove the first pitched ball past third for a long hit, breaking up the game.

The second game was marred by a fist fight on the St. Louis bench between Magee and Catthers at the end of the fourth inning. They got into an argument over the way Catthers had played Doyle's fly, which dropped safe for a single, and the men came to blows. Special policemen broke up the fight, and Umpire Brennan put both players off the field.

PIRATES TAKE FIRST ONE FROM THE DODGERS

Sensational Catches by Carey and Kommers Feature the Contest at Brooklyn.

BROOKLYN, July 18.—Pittsburgh took the first game of the series from Brooklyn after a hard battle Thursday four to three. The visitors lost the lead in the seventh but regained it in the eighth.

Robinson pitched shutout ball for six innings and then the locals bunched three singles and a double for three runs. Hendrix relieved Robinson in the eighth and held Brooklyn safe.

Three errors by Brooklyn and two singles off Ragan in the third netted Pittsburgh only one run. The visitors bunched three singles on top of a batter hit in the fifth, and again only one run was scored, three men being left. Again in the seventh Pittsburgh got three hits, but failed to score.

Scratch hits by Wilson and Viox. Clarke's sacrifice and Byrne's long single won the game in the eighth. Robinson made three hits in a row before retiring, while catches by Carey and Kommers featured. Ragan did not issue a pass.
